Sound me a Story with Mr Shay

A live streamed event produced by The Underground Creatives

Where does your mind take you when you read? What does your inner reading voice sound like? Join Mr Shay, your beatboxing host, to explore exciting stories through the power of sound! Through the magical technology of the Story-Sound-Simulator, we will combine sounds from our voice, our surroundings and many digital instruments. The Simulator is made up of flashing loop stations and sound effect machines which will create live soundscapes to re-imagine stories.

Tues 6th April, times: 11am and 2pm. For children age 7+ and their families. Duration: 45 mins. Tickets: £3 per family. Booking essential:

One Rhyme at a Time

Join us every Tuesday on Facebook for Rhyme Time!

Get ready to rhyme with us during our weekly One Rhyme at a Time sessions! Library staff across the county will be sharing their favourite rhymes on Facebook every Tuesday! Library rhyme and story sessions can help with young children's literacy and listening skills, helping to prepare them for the classroom.

Join in by going to www.facebook.com/yourlibrary to watch the latest rhyme time or catch up with any you have missed.

Get Rhyming with a Grab Bag!

Mrs Cox has a fox nesting in her sweaty socks!
